Instructions for school children, students, and faculty/staff members who returned from the Mainland China (including Hong Kong and Macau) (as of February 14, 2020)

School children, students, faculty/staff members who returned to Japan from Hubei Province or Zhejiang Province in China or had contact with a resident of Hubei Province or Zhejiang Province. have a fever (37.5°C or more) and any respiratory symptom within 2 weeks of entering Japan. don't have any currently have symptom symptons Refrain from going out for 2 weeks after entering Japan and observe your health condition carefully. In case 2 weeks have In case any symptom passed without appears within 2 experiencing any weeks. symptom, End of health condition O Avoid contact with other people, wear a mask, etc., monitoring contact a public health center by telephone immediately and consult a medical institution recommended by the public health center. O Contact the office of your Faculty/Graduate School, report the instructions received from the public health center and diagnosis by the medical institution, and ask for instructions about your study or work in Spring semester.

School children, students, faculty/staff members who returned to Japan from the Mainland China (including Hong Kong and Macau), except Hubei Province and Zhejiang Province, and had contact with neither a resident of Hubei Province nor Zhejian Province. have a fever (37.5°C or more) and any respiratory symptom within 2 weeks of entering Japan. don't have any currently have symptom symptons Refrain from going out for 2 weeks after entering Japan and observe your health condition carefully. In case any symptom In case 2 weeks have appears within 2 passed without weeks, experiencing any symptom, O Avoid contact with other people, wear a mask, etc., End of health condition consult a medical institution immediately. monitoring O Contact the office of your Faculty/Graduate School, report the diagnosis by the medical institution, and ask for instructions about your study or work in Spring semester.